"Strong Drink Strikes at the Very Foundation of the Home." — The General STRIDES have been made towards finally exterminating strong drink from our land. The results have been most beneficial, but the DEMON IS STILL WITH US. With subtle cunning he is worming into the home-life, thereby disturbing its sacred influence. Let us free our Canada once and for all time from this veritable SPAWN OF HELL. The future of the nation is at stake.

Separation from the World—2.

By GENERAL WILLIAM BOOTH

THE RULING SPIRIT OF THE WORLD, AND THE CONTROLLING SPIRIT IN WHICH SALVATIONISTS SHOULD LIVE, ARE DIRECTLY OPPOSITE THE ONE TO THE OTHER

In endeavoring to tell you the nature of conformity with the world, I mention the world, the evils of the world, and the name of the Lord I called upon you to separate yourselves from the world, and to free yourselves from its spirit. I will now show you what such separation meant.

It has occurred to me that some of you would be likely to say: "True. But how can this separation be accomplished?"

A multitude of no man number have discovered the hold of the world upon them, and yet are powerless to get away from their embrace.

Cannot Break Free?

Disappointed in its illusions, and maddened by its illusions, they still cannot break the fetters that bind them.

But multitudes more deliver themselves only to be drawn back by its charms into the wretched captivity from which they had once escaped. Like the swallows, when they return to their dwelling in the mire.

I can readily understand, therefore, that many who heard my condemnation of the world might want to ask these two questions:

"How can I escape? and how can I escape, so that its spirit shall be broken and its influence may leave me?"

These questions I want to answer, and in doing so I remark:

"You must be thorough. Do not let the world have a half and half affair; altogether a hypocrisy. Few things are more despised by God than a pretense of giving up to the world while we retain it in spirit."

Beware of professed to renounce it in some particular thing and condemn it in another.

leg everybody else who does not join gloom, and it will probably give you up to it in some other direction.

Condensing size you are inclined to.

Don't put yourself in the world which accompany holiday functions in your houses, in the conduct in Salvationists, and indeed amongst of your business, or the ornamentation Christian people generally.

Fee of the Church

How many mothers would rather than put on the frappes and ornaments about the history of the Christians than let the vanity of their children? I know that the world and its ways have been her greatest joy to

you. Let us now have a wrench effect in this direction.

How few return from their summer vacation with a smile, even if they are improved in body.

IV. Seize every opportunity that comes within your reach to show the ungodly the superiority of your religion.

Let us see that you have a sparkling charm you must water against her.

that you have a smile, and if she will laugh at and despise you. But if you make it manifest that you have naming a few of her most successful alone with the whole thing, and have attractions.

(1) The first I name is worldly goods. A gain of the world's goods often hinders the world's spirit.

Salvation, as a rule, means the making the best of both worlds. Nothing more common in the experience of Salvationists than that which takes place in their circumstances almost directly after their conversion.

Be doubly careful, therefore, lest the gain of the world's goods bring to you the world's spirit.

(2) Another attraction of the world is the power of God.

Very many are won through the influence of worldly companionship. How often does marriage with a world.

God Himself only knows, association with people who have only harmful as anything I have already named.

(3) The associations with the world which accompany holiday functions in your houses, in the conduct in Salvationists, and indeed amongst of your business, or the ornamentation

Christian people generally.

Territorial
NewsletsThe U.S.A. Territorial Commanders
BRIEF SKETCHES OF CAREERS

The Commissioner is very busy at this time in his arrangements for the visit of The General in November. Pray that our Leader will be upheld and Divinely guided in his deliberations.

As reported, for the last three Sundays the Commissioner has held special campaigns in the various districts of Ontario. He has now embarked on his twelve consecutive days campaign in the city. Let every comrade pray for a great spiritual awakening.

The Commissioner will meet the Winnipeg Corps Cadets and their Guardsmen on Wednesday, Oct. 22. The place of meeting will be announced later.

Mrs. Commissioner Eddie, Mrs. Colonel Morris and the Women Officers of Territorial Headquarters took an active part in the Grace Hospital Thanksgiving Service. Mrs. Eddie, Commissioner Eddie, personally conducted $130.

A full report of the Special Services financial campaign for $25,000, which was launched in Whistler on Monday, Sept. 12, and concluded with the Day of Pentecost, will appear in our next issue.

Brigadier Major, the Men's Social Secretary, visited the Winnipeg police court recently and met the officials. He was accompanied by Commandant Eddie. The Brigadier will conduct a service in St. Paul Mountain penitentiary on Sunday, Oct. 24.

Adjutant Keay, writing from Alaska, informs us that he is having good success in his financial work. During the past few months he has travelled over 3,000 miles. We trust Adjutant speaks of his appreciation of the War Cry.

The Adjutant has written us that the little daughter of Adjutant and Mrs. Mifflin has contracted scarlet fever. We understand she is progressing as well as can be expected.

"THE GENERAL'S ISSUE." This issue promises to be of a special character. It will be published on Oct. 20. We are of the opinion that many of our readers will desire more than one copy, and would suggest that you order from the nearest S.A. Officer immediately.

Ensign Lawton of Fernie has written to let us know the necessary steps to be taken to operate a dispensary. Ensign Lawton is present in the hospital at Kootenay, B.C. Pray for the Ensign and all our sick comrades.

Ensign Edwards of India, whose special meetings at the different Corps in the Territory have been so well received, after a few months, left Winnipeg on Sept. 22 for Montreal, where they will embark on the s.s. Corsican for Liverpool, on route for India.

Our attention has been called to the announcement in the "Vancouver Province" of the death of Adjutant R. J. Moore of the Vancouver Guard. Bandsman Moore was a city firman. While in the woods he and his son had taken a walk and were lost. They were last seen in the woods and were apparently killed when a large tree fell and crashed through the roof. We hope to publish further particulars later.

Adjutant Tufts, of Brandon, at the close of the holiday season sent a length of his uniform to each of his comrades, to each of his shoulders, instructing them to lay themselves out for the Salvation of souls during the coming winter.

Commissioner William Pearl. NEW Officers with as long a career behind them as that of Commissioner Pearl have a right to a brief course and association as he has had and answered the supreme call only a couple of hours before his other became Officers in The Salvation Army.

The Commissioner's only remaining comrades in the Army are the Commissioner's young officer in the American forces during the recent war and answered the supreme call only a couple of hours before his other became Officers in The Salvation Army.

Commissioner Thomas Estill. The Commissioner's young officer in the Army's ranks, after a brief course and association as he has had Commissioner Adam Gifford. It is now more than thirty-six years since young Adam Gifford, then hardly out of his teens, fared well from home Corps in Pittsburgh to become an Officer.

LATEST DISPATCHES FROM THE FIRING LINE

STEADY ADVANCES IN EACH DIVISION— MANY SURRENDERS

EDMONTON III.—Sunday, Aug. 22, was a day rich in blessing for our Corps. Lieutenant Clark and Morrison were with us all day, also Candidates and their families. We came up to spend the day with our Y.P.S.M., Mrs. Munro, before leaving for the Training College, Winnipeg.

We had a band, the band of the Inter-drill, which was in charge of Captain Waterston, and showers of blessing surely fell and our souls were refreshed.

The Holiness meeting, preceded by a splendid Open-Air, was a day of heart-scoring for every one of us. Candidates, Misses, etc.

Sunday school at 2:30, led us by our Y.P.S.M., went with a swing, and our Young People listened eagerly to their teacher, Mrs. Munro. Major who was at one time a Company Guard, and Candidate Mure, who has been Y.P.S.M. in the Dept., at the afternoons, did a great Open-Air.

The Salvation meeting was well attended and Lieutenant Morrison led us on our normal life ten times over. Lieutenant Clark and the Inter-drill, though we had souls at the mercy-seat, we believe, had a good time, and the young people were filled with joy.

The Commer. Lutheran College was kindly loaned us as sleeping quarters for the night. In the act of Handshakes, made their home in the College while in Camrose. We are and have the best wishes and prayers for the near future.—J. B. E.

CALGARY III.—An interesting wedding was conducted by our Divisional Officer, Major Alice Goodwin, in the Church on Aug. 23. Corps Cadet Captain Pilgrim and his bride, Mrs. Pilgrim, were the contracting parties. Adjutant Bourne conducted the official ceremony. Bandman Huston and his wife, and their two young comrades, spoke briefly, as did also Sister Mrs. Lockwood on behalf of the Church. Our organist, Miss Gleam, supplied the music, and Major Goodwin read a telegram from Commandant Melville, who was not able to be present.

A theatre was secured for the afternoon and night. Commandant Bristow of the Edmonton Men's Social delivered a Salmon address. Many were present, and a large gathering of friends and relatives witnessed the happy event after which they enjoyed a meal.

The Commer. Lutheran College was kindly loaned us as sleeping quarters for the night. In the act of Handshakes, made their home in the College while in Camrose. We are and have the best wishes and prayers for the near future.—J. B. E.

Officers—Attention! "The General's" Issue Week ending October 30th

The special features of this issue will make it a good seller.

WINNIPEG VIII.—Our Corps is progressing under the leadership of Captain and Mrs. Fox. Commandant and Mrs. Johnstone of Y.P.S.M. have come to assist us, and we are happy to welcome them. We shall miss the support of Lieutenant Christie, who has been appointed to assist Commandant Hobbs at the St. James Corps.

On Sunday, Aug. 29, while the Open-Air was in progress, a man, a War Cry and a harmonium, and a band, played a tune outside of his house, as his dying wife requested it.

The request was complied with, and the fanfare of "I Want You, My Soul" was played. Captain Fox went in to see the dying woman, who said, "I am in the arms of the Lord." The Y.P.S.M., Adjutant Bourne and Captain Mundy led the Holiness meeting.

At night we said farewell to Candidate Officers, the Secretaries and Lieutenant Howe spoke of our comrade's life and work in the Corps. On Wednesday night we had a farewell gathering, at which refreshments were served.

As a finale the comrades marched the Corps to the Training College, led by the Band.—E. M.

DRUMHELLER, Alta.—On Sept. 4, and the Drills were visited by the Corps. Captain Clark and Miss M. Crookston, the pianist. They arrived about 10 o'clock Saturday evening, and had a good time.

Sunday morning the Band played for about an hour to the patients in the hospital, followed by the Holiness meeting in the S.A. hall. In the noon the meeting was held in the National Theatre, the chairman being Mr. Headon. The evening meeting was conducted by Adjutant Bourne in the theatre, and the citizens turned out in great numbers to the meeting.

On Monday, Sept. 7, the Band played for the success of the Red Cross, which was held in the evening. The Band held an open-air concert, which was well attended.

Much credit for the success of the Band goes to the efforts of the Officers and local comrades.

Grace Rossine, C.C.

He is the propitiation for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.—I John 4:2.

Mrs. Bushman has been appointed secretary.

KAMASACK, SASK.—We had the pleasure of having our first home service for two weeks—ends. His presence was a help and a blessing to us. Good meetings took outside of the indoors, where once we had only three or four in the open-air meetings, now we have sixteen. God's Spirit is working among people, especially among the young. Kamasack has now a Brigade of six Corps. The Pilgrim Band, the War Cry, Sunday School, Sun. Sat., and Bushnell spoke on Judas. The hall was crowded. J.A.M.

ASSINIBOIA, SASK.—On Sept. 8th, after being in charge of Assiniboia for nearly five months, Captain and Mrs. Morrison and Lieutenant Smith, met to the Soldiers who have been experienced. Many blessings have been experienced during their stay, and we trust will bless them in their future appointments. S.M.C.

REGINA II.—The presence of Col. was felt all day long. Commanding with Knob Drill, God's blessing was upon us, and our souls were filled with joy. The Holiness meeting proved a blessing. Captain Faulkner, assisted by Lieutenant Perry. At night we had a great Salvation Meeting led by Captain and Mrs. Johnstone. God wonderfully blessed us, and we had the joy of seeing three souls at the Mercy-Seat. Glory to God. C.C.

NANAIMO, B.C.—The meetings were conducted by Captain F. Mundy, week ending Sept. 4th and 5th. On Sunday, Aug. 23, the Inter-drill, five small onions sliced fine, one red pepper cut thin, two-thirds tablespoon turnerines, half tablespoon whole mustard seed, one tablespoon celery seed, two tablespoons salt, one cap sugar, one cap vinegar. Boil all together 20 minutes. Makes two quarts.

LETHBRIDGE, Alta.—Another gloomy day, but the Inter-drill, Adjutant Hardy received a warm welcome home, having been on furlough. The Adjutant gave an inspiring address, and the singing of "Jesus is the Way." The afternoon, Bandman F. Wilson, assisted by the Band, led a praise meeting, meanwhile Lieutenant Ede, Captain Christie, Captain Clark, Chairman, and a Sister comrade conducted the jail service. At night a splendid congregation gathered. A large number of people, including the Bandmaster from Medicine Hat, testified, Lieutenant Ede sang an effective solo, after which Brother Chief Hardy, Captain Ede, and Captain Christie, and the young people, all joined in singing "Jesus is the Way." The service was well attended.

On July 3rd Y.P.S.M. Mrs. Hydon returned from a lengthened stay in Europe. The War Cry and the Inter-drill were much appreciated by the district. Our comrade, Captain Christie, came to town from the camp to tell our Officers that, having nothing to do on Sunday so good as the War Cry, he would be at the family gathering, her faithful services were appreciatively spoken of. Our love is Nanaimo's gain.

On July 3rd Captain F. Mundy and his wife, Captain and Mrs. Johnstone, from Calgary, took a long trip. Their residence was a large, pretentious spot situated on the banks of Bear Lake, about nine miles from the city. The Inter-drill, Adjutant Hardy, and his wife, the other prayer and work, followed him. Captain Christie and Lieutenant Captain Clark, from Taber, led on, assisted by Lieutenant Ede and Envoy Dawson. H.D.

ORANGE, PRAIRIE, Alta.—On Aug. 20th the Young People held meetings, and had a memorable day. The attendance at indoor and outdoor meetings was excellent, and almost broke the record.

Five officers of the "Officers dealing with the other prayer and work, followed him. Captain Christie and Lieutenant Captain Clark, from Taber, led on, assisted by Lieutenant Ede and Envoy Dawson. H.D.

Souls have been saved. Bless God! One young man, named Clark, in his home at midnight on Saturday night, one of the "Officers dealing with the other prayer and work, followed him. Captain Christie and Lieutenant Captain Clark, from Taber, led on, assisted by Lieutenant Ede and Envoy Dawson. H.D.

Young and old, Captain F. Mundy, and his wife, Captain and Mrs. Johnstone, from Calgary, took a long trip. Their residence was a large, pretentious spot situated on the banks of Bear Lake, about nine miles from the city. The Inter-drill, Adjutant Hardy, and his wife, the other prayer and work, followed him. Captain Christie and Lieutenant Captain Clark, from Taber, led on, assisted by Lieutenant Ede and Envoy Dawson. H.D.

We say "thank you" to those who so kindly loaned their cars, and are looking forward to the time when we can afford a larger number of Young People accompanying us next year.

What looking back upon the pest

Or wasted years of sin and shame,

I wonder if "the die is cast,"

He left His throne above to reveal

His wonders love,

And open a fountain for sin,

But, Lord, in penitence I cry,

"Let not this wretched sinner die!"

I do believe it! I do believe it!

We told over the time to come straight to the Salvation Army Headquarters in London and here we are." What we are introduced to the department which, under Mrs. Commissioner Higgins, deals with this branch of our work, and the care and comfort of all the men for their care and comfort, as well as in the interval of waiting here, as well as in the time after their return they were under the personal supervision of Salvation Army Officers. One accompanied them to the graves of their loved ones on their behalf. Now they have started back to Canada, having successfully negotiated the long, long journey, and the party of thirteen visitors to Pope ring, says, "Everything was done by your people to help us, no trouble to us, too good. We tell you the evidence of your practical Christianity."

A second mother writes, "What for your Officer's help should we have found our lad's grave?" The Captain went with an as and searched a long time until he discovered it. The grave was marked with a simple stone, the mound, he uttered such a lovely prayer—it banished my sadness and made me feel indeed that that was turned out to be good.
